

\

1^{er} ... BCE

- Farming agriculture , Anatolie , 9000 p285,p322
- Herding , Zagros Anatolie , 9000 8000 p322
- Maison brique , Anatolie , 7000 p265 afghanistan Syberie Kazakstan 6000 p323
- Fortification 6000 p285
- Conflagration 5200 p285
- Tombe Royale 4000 p285 3000 p326
- Stone tool 1 500 000 p211 ~97000 p443 , Tarim W. Chine 20000 p341
- Rock art Afrique N. 7000 p227 , Finlande Siberie 5500 p323 , Australie 10000 p425 , Spain 5000 P425 , Anatolia 8000 p282
- Bronze 3500 p286
- Iron 1200 Anatolie , Aryan Hittite p292
- Battle-Axe 3500 (bronze) ou 1 500 000 p211
- Chariot 3000 Astew, Gobi Région (chine) p326
- Literature chine 2000 p348 8350 Cuneiforme sumerien change en Semitic en Mesopotamie , 3500 IndoAryans Italic, Celtic , Germanic , Slavic , Latin , Ita. Spa. P286 , 600 Perse , concept femme ``Queen of the Whore demon`` Pahlavi = Bible creation du monde en 7jours et 1^{er} Peché de femme avec diable P298
- Grande muraille chine 700 p350
- Champs Cereales ~4000 p442
- Culture (def : enterer les Morts) 500000 p211
- Ville Jericho ~10350 Jordanie , Katal Huyuk 8500 (avec enceinte pierre, tour etc.) p426 , Babylon ~4000 Mesopotamie, Ur ~4000 , Nippur ~4000 , Altin-Bepo ~3000 Russie (avec fortifications) p327
- Forteresse Marsin ~6800 p426
- Syphilis Chine 1500 CE p361
- Australopiteque → 1 500 000 p211
Homoerectus 1 500 000
Neanderthal 500 000 (-35000)
Homo sapiens 100000

Exp

A shift towards Nomadic adaptation occurred. As drought and desertification intensified , famine , Starvation, mass migration and conflict inevitably developed, intensified, and have continued ever since. [...] Warrior-nomad p103 Predominantly peaceful unarmored-matrist charactr p102 while it is more usual to speak about these Matters in a smaller scale context, of pentius anger p106 the spirit of Wild nature , etc. portrait of a specific time-period, Revealing an ongoing historical process, Saharasian Spatial pattern is very Real, a heretofore previously hidden pattern deeply imbeded within [...] p109 Making the female breast a target for all kind of sexually erotic aud sadistic impulses. P116 Misrepresent the biomedical Mutilation performed by Males, within the high caste of medical obstetrics and gynecology. P129 The entire Medico-magical ``health-care``system, and by [...] sex-anxious families [...] and by the emotional collusion and agreement by the women upon whom it is perpetrated p130 Conspiracy of silence by witch the public is led to believe ... High-caste medical priests ... self assured male Sadist-surgeon. P131 primitive dayas or witch-doctors carried out in the bush. Chasm between high-sounding rhetoric and reality, golden words and dirty deeds p132 children want to please their parents, to love them and be loved, but are totally unprepared for the sexual advances of a grown adult, with fully mature genitalia. Society rightfully has a ``taboo`` against this kind of incest, wich is called pedophilia, child seduction, or chid rape when it occurs between unrelated individuals p139 youthful romances will be far less inclined to accept the dictates of a prent over emotionally-charged basic life decisions, such as choice of marriage partner p141 The leaders of most kingdoms within or surrounding Saharasia were in fact, gargantuan fornicators,, massing harems with wives and concubines numbering in the hundreds or even thousands p146 harem developed as major islands within a larger sea of female subordination arranged mariages p147 a man with many working wives and chidren can accumulate more wealth than a man with a single wife and only a few children. This is quite a large labor resource, and the husband father is given full legal rights to control both the very lives and property of the entire wealth-producing enterprise !with the historical change from a barter to cash economy in those areas, and with similar changes to cash export crops over crops for local [...] (coffee over beans, for examples) the accumulation of capital became possible [...]

one interesting social shift Hence one can see how sex-economic factors clearly interrelate with other purely economic factors, providing a very clear, if not depressing understanding of social forces perpetuating a low status for women, dramatic population growth, environmental deterioration, and political, Regional and tribal conflicts. P148 virginity taboos which block sexual access to females by young men p158 special "christian brothels" founded by the Church of Rome in the middle-ages. The end of a hardwinter Celebrating p159 youthful Romance and love-match marriages, eventually break down the caste system p172 However, the correlation between despotism and hydrolic society ... desertification p176 a bit perplexed about the unrestrained sex lives of the youth in these societies (hyper-critical in their assessment of native medicine p181 any botanicals which they believe to affect the giving or withholding of life a surrounded by powerful Taboos which prevent their disclosure to an outsider. P182 a reasonable attempt have been made to search out references [...] but the male laboratory Researchers simply laughed at her suggestions that they be tested for contraceptives effectiveness (MDC) A source of native healing folklore and wisdom. Juices and boiled teas were made from the stalks and roots plants p187 tribal units had been absorbed into the central state, or sharply eroded by intrusion of new migrant cultures ... were pushed towards more extreme patriism [...] and some limits to the authority of the catholic church over family matters p202 as the entire globe could not be discussed in explicit terms simultaneously (répition in the material) (MDC) p206 Portion east of the Red Sea a Zone of suspicion (One might politely call Saharasia, particularly its portion...) p209 . Rock art of the dry phase reflects a definite change of style and subject matter [...] a certain gentle and bold quality not present in the later arid phase " the older they are, the more evident the refinement and artistic sense with which they are executed " lacks its artistic flavor, it appears abstract and stickman-like, without the grace and sensitivity of earlier rendering. One could argue that the arid phase Rock art is really not art at all, but merely graffiti, or haphazard scrawling, indicative of a certain loss of emphasis upon art. This view is supported by a review ...) p224 Began to reflect the intrusion of different groups of peoples, Rock pictures . (the region) p232 after the invader were absorbed or overthrown ... Everything is exhaustion." it is no wonder that writings of this periods contain lamentations and skepticism about the meaning of life. P232 a "flogging society" was instituted where commoners genuflected to god-kings p233 Another period of social unrest occurred ... successfully revolted from egyptian control p234 The name was defaced [...] . Her name was defaced. She was opposed by antifeminist elements in the military p235 160 children from a small army of wives and concubines possessing a large Retinues emphasized the rôle of the military. Such phallic representations are a give-away to a deep culture wide insecurity about sexual potency . "Nile Nasamone" " Naked Garamantes " p237 Many of these characteristics were in later years also transmitted by bantu groups p238 Large pits have been excavated These evidences speaks of relatively moist condition . Concepts in family structure .. in Sexual behavior loaded Egypt "The revolutionary Gentlewomen in Egypt p239 Their recent redicover by [...] matrilineal p234 the well have fallen or gone dry p240 in christian philosophers [...] general ground to a halt p242 adopting Islam only nominally p244 philosophers of the foreign group dictated more or less the subordinate nature of women and children (the stimulus of invasion exherbited these tendencies but stimulating raiding between bordering states [...] tribal/ethnic groups p245 these few sentences only serve to briefly contrast the affects of 2 different [...] power p246 eolian deposit , most salient of the topographic features p242 fabulous frescoes and carvings of North Africa .. in qualitative sense p249 Settlement were located near the regions of the wadis. Runoff agriculture allowed mixed agricultural/pastoral/hunting settlements here and there p250 codif. in law this ongoing social transformation p252 upon attitudes about sexuality were basically wept off the map [...] totalitarian Islamic state were established, generally lead by debauched Tyrants .. ``holy war`` against ``inferior`` this family life and sexual-emotional configurations of Islamic society were scarcely alterede. From a sex-economic Perspective . Awash in trillion of petro-dollars, the anti-sex, anti-female ideology of Islamist supremacy ... creating social tensions and suicide-homicide bumper, mass-murder terrorism worldwide directed against the hated nonbelievers, or muslims of less fanatical lifestyles. ``multicultural`` openness has allowed in the W. ...one may expect a continued and amplifying global clash of culture, as Islamic-Saharasian ideology and behavior slowly asserts itself through continued outmigration and demographic expansion p254 climatic pendulations (Regardless of) p256 climate change factors which would inhibit regrowth of tree p257 It is perfectly apparent that large parti of syrie had soil and forests and springs and rivers, while it has none of these now...`` Hugues Butler H.S. p258 Climatic oscilation p260 factors that have often affected life in these area 9soil exhaustion, animal axhaustion, animal disease, drought, nomadic incursions and the like ,) p261 the cultural structure of the Levant and Mesopotamia p262 butchering their favoring wives, concubines and servants ... buried alive in obvious crouching positions ... a man in charge of the whip assigned to beat schoolboys at the slightest hint of disobedience p264 wave after wave of these peoples swept out of the anatolian/Iranian highlands and [...] the fertile crescent was flooded with what the Babylonians called Khabiru (hebrew) Peoples, identified as ``vagrants, refugees, and waderers`` The Great Flood of the Babylonians and Hebrew, was dated to this Period C. 2300 BCE p265 the encroachment of sand dunes was a recurent menace. The flesh was not see inherently evil and Celibacy itself was considered a violation of the biblical injunction to be ``fruitful`` instinctive nature of the family ... Some new twists were also apparent p266 merciless bloodlust tactics emerged supreme over Period were harsher and more compulsive than in previous time (harsher) p268 It is hard to realize how greatly Petra has changed p272 fossil deposit p273 forcibly castrate or mutilate the sexual organs of anyone unfortunate enough to fall in their hands . Against the `filth of intercourse. Violating the incest taboo when the childs saved but sold into bondage, night be met by the parent in a brothel p275 a tongue of moisture penetrates inland along the southern edge of these mountain, bringing light winter rains, and snow p278 Plant ... being assaulted by humans and herd animals p279 and often loose themselves in the sand [.] old river courses now blocked by sand deposition p281 subsequent developments in the history of warfare can be traced p281 xerophile (mollusque) dépredation p285 female figurines of a naturalistic style, including animals and mother-child motifs were found in the ruins, similar artifacts ... p285 indo-Aryans who were at the time harassing peoples farther west. Cultural contact p285 Minoan crete also yielded influences from the East p285 Indo-Aryan pushed through the indus valley . P289 these freer conditions were gradually eroded under pressure similar to those experienced upon the mainland. Minoan Possessed a very high status for women. Minoan crete focused upon the female, and women were not secluded their dress often exposing the bare breast p290 the provocative dress of both sexes and their easy mingling, a spirit best understood through its opposite, the total veiling and seclusing of Moslem women under a faith which even denied them a soul `` Hawkes ``a Splendid Goddess queening it over a small and suppliant male god, and this concept must surely have expressed some attitude present in the human society that accepted it ... the fearless and natural emphasis on sexual life that ran throught all Religiou expression ... was made obvious in the provocative ... + Cretan Men and Women were everywhere accustomed do seeing a splendid ...) as quoted in Stone 1976 p48 p291 Suggesting a society where females had leading social roles, equal to men, and where sexuality were openly expressed neither cloaked in mystery nor displayed in exagerrated manners (as with phallic architecture and bas Relief in Egypt and later Rome) ..are expressive and joyful, filled with color and life. Realistic female statues ... often mystified. Barebreasted female healer respected.. needlessly portraying the Minoans as a spiritually preoccupied ``goddess ``culture Likewise in short, there is a subtle evasion of the obvious, a reluctance among contemporary scholar... The peaceful matristic Minoans could have been technologically superior to the patristic. P293 Relative Peace and isolation from the Mainland chaos p292 of central authority in those mainland infested areas. P294 Female images were degraded, into a stiff, emotion-less, deadly and de-sexualized "goddess", a fitting female companion to the authoritarian blood-drenched "gods" of the period, undisturbed, preserved p295 Gone are the bright, spiraling sparkling images of life and nature, of the soft and natural sexuality of earlier period p295 That early matristic peaceful societies were more in touch with the force of nature than later, armored Patristic cultures, consequently they understood the fundamental relationships between spiral forms and natural processes, and also could see with their eyes the visible spiral movements of orgone (life-energy) in the atmosphere, spiral forms, therefore dominated the art work of the earliest peoples, while abstraction, were dominant among later more armored cultural groups. The spiral movements of life energy phenomena were firstly described scientifically by Wilhelm Reich (1951) who also argued that animistic peoples were generally more in touch with life energy processes in nature. Later armored cultures lost this visual capacity, lost organic sense contact with nature, and begun to mystify natural forces into various metaphysical abstractions, high gods, etc. . These same armored peoples, it is argued here, were very anti-child, anti-sexual, and violent, arising firstly within Saharasia. (+ This generalized pattern in ancient pottery and artwork motifs was first observed and described by the Swiss scholar Hanspeter Seiler (1992) who argued that early matristic. ...) p294 all trace of the mother-goddess cult disappeared " Lebens, Energy and Matriarchy. Pythagoreans regarding their revulsed attitude toward women and heterosexuality. P300 viewed salvation as reserved to the sage alone, he felt men should be free from passion and calmly accept all occurrences as the unavoidable result of divine will/ indifference to either pleasure or pain p301 The hierarchal view of the male as superior to female developed parallel to the view of the human superior to all of the natural world . Aristotle (c. 350 BCE) a pupil of Plato and tutor of Alexander the Great, saw man as the highest of all creatures, superior to the female, with all the natural world having been created for him, saw the earth as the center of universe p301 rampant deforestation and soil erosion (these climatic and historical events took their toll upon the land as well as upon the fabric of human society ...) only later was he touched with guilt over his deeds Asoka "the hypocrite" Slaughtered hundreds of thousands during his conquest [...] with all the deadly trapings of the caste system and hatred of the female. P302 Stoic influences which opposed the free expression of emotion had completely permeated the Roman character structure by 350 BCE p303 compromise with sin. Constantine ordered rape to be punishable by being burnt alive at the stake, or by being torn to pieces by wild beasts in the arena. This law was extended to include the "seduction" of unmarried girls under 25. If the girl said she consented, she too was likewise a murderer. Marriage would save the pair from death, but they were then exiled and their property confiscated. Slaves who helped arrange a liaison between "illegal" lovers were murdered by having molten lead poured down their throats, and male slaves who had intercourse with free women were likewise punished. Christian autocrats and bishops over such matters of daily life were harsh and sadistic in the extreme (the rule*) p306 for want of a better name, are termed "river p307 mass hysteria which gripped a community about to burn its "widows" [...] in a carnival atmosphere [...] or incapacitating her with a knife p303 absolute negation of female sexuality and instinctually directed sexual pleasure. P309 Chaste or "pure" abstinent, A much more difficult undertaking than celibacy. It was an era of sexual hypocrisy and cruelty, when clerics railed against various sexual heresies, but themselves lived out the greatest licentiousness. P310 Vicious stories continued to be told to children to frighten them into obedience, that God would hold bad children "to roast over the pit of hell... red hot oven p313 Black death, Mass Murder of heretics, performed on Sundays for the amusement of church-going Christians, continued at a weary pace. P344 The limits of our six basins lie over sixteen hundred miles apart from N. to S. and over 3 thousand [...] the mechanism of such changes and their absolute chronologies are still less certain ... while evidence of Climate change is present, such changes are also strongly linked to human actions. P318 such pulsations in climate change is present, such changes are also strongly linked to human actions. P318 Such pulsations in climate, hydrological adjustments, and transformations of the landscape appear well documented, as are the outbreaks of militant nomads themselves. Factors such as politics, population growth, and economics have also played a rôle in these events, but such factors are not static. Indeed, they tend not only to interact dynamically with each other, but are stimulated in the first instance by climate changes. Once triggered into movement, these processes overlapped in a common gestalt of events, social chaos, migration and invasions, transpired nearly simultaneously to a major shift in climate and environment. p319 these arid steppe regions are typically highly mineralized with sparse vegetation and very little organic material, less than 1 %; abundant soda salts such as carbonates, sulfates, and sodium chloride, refound either in the soils, or as surface deposits uncovered by both fixed and shifting sands, smaller sand deserts lie the N. [...] p320 periods of outward expansion p320 the stream discharged enough water for longer periods of p321 shifted their course [...] to the chagrin of settled peoples. P322 "master of the creation of life and movement by the simplest of means." -Daiuk Manan p323 River ... supported sedentary neolithic fishing and hunting groups p328 the borders of which were constantly shifting. P329 displacing the scythians who fled N. to harass Eastern Europe p330 Sediement p332 gathered enough power to oust the Mongols ... p337 notions of erotic or romantic love were crushed under the boot heels of the early tsars, renown for their sadism. Black Plague p338 A cry was heard for more human treatment of wives and children, and in themselves challenged old beliefs about the nature of the universe p341 Massive sandstorms p342 it was an era of lovemaking, poems, song and dance, which lasted up until... p449 Tong society appears to have institutionalized the previously random forms of debauchery and sadism of earlier years p355 The sex handbook of the period actually described the physical characteristics, such as haircolor, face shape, etc., of women considered most suited or unsuitable for coitus. Extensive rules for lovemaking were formulated p357 Buddhists priests were forbidden from sexual indulgence, and could be killed if they went into home where a woman lived alone, when found guilty, such priests were targeted for the severest of tortures involving skin flaying and molten lead. Under the anti-female and anti-heterosexual conditions, homosexuality flourished. P360 The Ming maintained a lavish and cruel style, mixed with Confucian puritanism p360 The war against public tenderness and love heats up p363 (et pkjc) stealing a sweetkiss "comfort girl" p363 fully-blown nomadism p364 desiccation occurred before the development of a Patriarchal authoritarian warlike nomadism, and was a central mechanism in stimulating such changes in those areas. However ... invaded shortly before the onset of arid condition p365 after they were annihilated and replaced by new inhabitants. More importantly for this study, the beliefs, behaviors, social structures and institutions of the patriarchal authoritarian nomads were transplanted into the newly conquered regions, irrespective of climate. [...] entirely transplanted the Saharasian fabric into Europe [...] p366 Heartlands p366 or other key aspects of the Saharasian cultural complex anywhere [...] confirm the past presence of a ubiquitously higher status for women, greater autonomy for children and adolescents. [...] the Temporal and spatial geographic patterns of the Saharasian Cultural complex. [...] fully confirm the overall Saharasian discovery, of human armoring, patriarchy and social violence being the product of biological Reactions to severe and prolonged drought-famine-starvation conditions, rather than something genetic and innate in the human species. P368

If the general theory on the origins of armored patriarchy in the process of desert formation is truly a global theory [...] Ideally, a systematic reconstruction of historical and prehistorical events [...] would have to be done for these areas [...] and the attribut "patriarchy" itself gradually diluted with passage across Oceania p369 the association between circumcision and despotic forms of central state and extreme hierarchy [...] were clearly on the right track, but they lacked adequate data by which to test their theories p370 only the poor maps of the early diffusionist ethnographers exist, which understandably have not been widely accepted. Even my own maps presented here, which are among the most detailed to be produced since 1930s, can only be considered as first approximation. [...] locus [...] "the high degree of correlation between rainfall and [population] in a city indicates that the Australian aborigines are subject to a rigorous environmental determinism ... J.B. Birdsell American Naturalist 1953 p171-207 p371 It is recalled that Reich felt such patrism traits had "invaded" their culture p372 these feeling of the Trobriand Natives about compass direction toward which happiness or evil were to be found appear to be rooted in real historical events, namely the location farthest removed from where enemy war canoes first appeared on the horizon [...] is not well known (history of the .) [...] and in other social characteristics which fit very well with the idea of patrism ocean voyagers. [...] archipelago p373 this is an averaged situation, resultant from the existence of many [...] Non-Random manner [...] systematically correlated or geographically identified p375 antichild, antifemale, and antisexual attitudes and behaviors cannot derive from biological instinct alone, but are rooted in social or environmental phenomenon . Passed on from one generation to the next . [...] p376 in short, the desert region of N. A. bear no realistic comparison, in either intensity or size to those of Saharasia. P377 skull deformation showed the application of aesthetic standards to the human body [...] p379 That is the simplest and most Straight-forward explanation possible, but requires the reader to abandon old dogmas about the Bering-strait as the only possible route or entry in [...] not to hold much hope for having stimulated the genesis of patrism p380 with independent cultural invention occurring ever since .[...] stumblingblock [...] fullyblown form [...] between the 2 regions have also been noted [...] playing alive of prisoners [...] arguing [...] I have not researched the chronology of onset of patrism in the Pacific N.W. but the direction of migration, to the S. [...] a detailed discussion [...] p381 the above Idea are offered only for suggestion and I will resist presenting additional evidence [...] a first approximation p382 These overlapping qualities further prove the validity of the discovery laid out in this work, of a major global geographical pattern imbedded within the data, Revealed only when it is mapped. P382 Undertaken, independently, via several different Methods. P390 In other words, Reich's Sex-economy theory described human behavior in that 400-culture sample in a precise and robust manner. [...] no other theory on human behavior has such a powerful and systematic explanatory capacity for these same, widely used [...] highly-structured geographical patterns [...] peer-reviewed [...] constitute yet another strong proof of the overall theory and basic starting assumptions. One does not ever see such highly-structured patterns on maps and in nature, without a causal principle at work [...] Map is controversial, that it inadvertently forces into discussion other hotly-debated issues (such as adolescent sexuality, family issues or pre-Columbian contacts) cannot be helped, and no genuine scholar will shrink from an open discussion of these incredible spatial correlations which by themselves provide yet another form of independent supportive evidence. [...] a detailed analysis of environmental conditions within Saharasia [...] map was generally matched by the exceptionally harsh living conditions, and by specific vegetational and cultural characteristics of this other place on Earth was found to possess the above characteristics in unison, and Saharasia appear, on the maps as the central core of these same environmentally-extreme or historically related features. The spatial pattern on the world Behavior Map was thereby given additional support, within the context of [...] p392 ancient art work p393 Minor climatic pulsations [...] general long-term trend towards . Hyperarid conditions. p394

Peoples in the wetter regions were increasingly displaced, provoked to defend themselves, and/or conquered by the militant nomads [...] Saharasia proper was incessantly overrun and criss-crossed by various nomad warrior groups who struggled with each other for dominance of the desiccating landscape. Dramatic widespread drought and famine condition [...] p395 a migration-invasion process of great antiquity was not as systematic or detailed as with the Old world [...] deadly patrism ... When they came into conflict with Indo-Aryan and/or semitic invaders - which in any case marked the end of their civilisations. P396 An unbroken chain of events [...] In this manner [...] connected, logically and spatially [...] Modern expression of patrism Taken together [...] sex-affirmative character [...] Self-regulated emotional pattern following the pleasure-principle, as first articulated [...] carried forward ... "The Sex Contract." Fishes. Structuring of family units based upon mutually pleasurable biological impulses [...] physical anthropology p397 Psychopathology [...] surface layer [...] via socially-approved trauma and repression [...] the bonds of romantic love and mutually-pleasurable sexual attraction between male and female which keep families together in a non-compulsive manner. [...] the bounds of Saharasia [...] as the great drying-up occured [...] the patrist behaviors, attitudes, and institutions, which developed within Saharasia after it dried-up are best explained as late biocultural adaptations and responses to the pressures and trauma of desertification and recurring famine. [...] peer-reviewed for accuracy. They reflect cultural material [...] was [...] cultural processes originally stimulated by widespread climate transitions towards aridity and famine [...] in ancient times. The climate-change which created Saharasian desert belt was the greatest single global environmental change and catastrophe to occur since the end of Pleistocen Ice Age, and it has profound consequences for [...] and their [...] p398 vindicate and extend most of the points given in [...] new independant nations [...] it also kills or assaults everything which is wild or uncontrolled in nature. [...] and thesis ... p399 life-layer of the planetary biosphere environment ecosystem [...] supression of knowledge [...] emotional desert [...] characterological [...] fundamental aspect of this problem p399 free expression of pleasure-directed biological impulses, which celebrate and protect mother-love and sexual love, destructive poisonous contempt for the natural world [...] lacking economic power [...] concrete aspects of patristism and armoring [...] top most position of importance (men at the .) [...] in direct proportion. [...] feeling of being part of the larger web of life [...] expansive bioenergetic connection to nature. [...] emotionally better adjusted to existence within a toxic deforested wasteland than within the throbbing and pulsing web of life. We are caught in a suicidal symbiosis - an emotional conspiracy - with the desert itself, expanding and enlarging the desert even into our own emotional and social structure. Homo normalis, the ape who think more than feel, is busy turning the only living blue planet in the solar system into toxic, lifeless sand and dust ! There is far more than metaphor to these relationships. [...] the problem is surely more than just of "dominating males", it is both males and females who have absorbed into their guts the same anti-pleasure, emotional/cultural structure. P400 It is also shocking to hear some feminists apologize for or even supporting male circumcision. This attitude itself reveals a certain castrated rage directed towards men. [...] but the larger problem is truly one of both men and women. Unconscious elements of fear and rage underlay the surface-facade attitudes of both men and women regarding sexuality and childrearing, though in this latter area women generally play a more central rôle [...] sex-economic dynamic [...] "Gossip systems" p401 (p402. Edit err/en pkjc) a considerable social and sexual tension permeates the atmosphere. P404 She was definitely a member of a tiny minority. P409 "cooled a woman off" [...] cleaner" [...] burning heat [...] "sexual anarchy" p409 "more potent" p409 I did not challenge him on this p410. Cultural friction [...] unspoken point of friction between Arab and Israeli of a most intense form. [...] and cutting up with Jokes and the like in a manner familiar in the W. p413 uneasily shifted her gaze back and forth between the desert and the Israeli teens. [...] distressed and anxious. [...] democratic theocracy [...] Eyeballed [...] gawked (plus the constant watching eyes of everyone else on the streets p406) p414 that frustrated love turns hateful [...] (suffer under a most strongly formulated incest taboo. P410) Unattainable grapes are believed to be sour p414

The modern expressions of this pattern could be, and should be more fully discussed and described. [...] did she ever make some daring, bold move to break free of her situation ? [...] Narcotic petroleum p415 We have become so accustomed to warfare and violence as the "norm" that we have difficulty even conceptualizing there might be, or might have been in our most ancient past, another mode of social existence free of the horrors of warfare and all but the most uncommon examples of interpersonal violence. [...] I undertook one of the most systematic global cross-cultural investigations on human behavior and the origins of violence that has ever been undertaken. [...] this work demonstrated a previously unknow global geographical pattern [...] the newly discovered geographical pattern [...] demonstrated a strong spatial correlation [...] synonymous with Wilhelm R.'s definition of highly armored character structures) [...] in W.R. monumental clinical discovery of human armoring, the biophysical source of neurotic behaviors and impulses towards sadism and brutality, and the wellspring for virtually every authoritarian social structure which exists, or which has ever existed [...] Mapped p423 mapped showed a very strong correlation between the first dry-up of Saharasia ... to the general origin of human social violence [...] database p424 where a specialist is required to point out what is a head or arm or torso, cannot be easily held up to conclude much of anything. Especially when a simple line bisecting such a drawing is then interpreted as a "spear" [...] however, a tower by itself does not warfare make. P426 the error is, extrapolating the evidence backward in time [...] "disturbed human behavior" Bar-yosef [...] Have undergone such frequent radical re-assessment in their interpretation. [...] we are left with the impression of the blind men encountering the elephant... Evans (ruine) [...] (regrettably, these are too often misrepresented in popular account as "fortification" through the error of mixing the dates of first habitation with the dates for appearance of first violence, without careful reference. The error is ...) p427 taken together, these data demonstrate ~p430 A buried anger toward the child (ie, a willingness to inflict painful trauma upon babies for the sake of "cultural tradition") p435 climatic reconstruction toward a slightly moister situation in those regions, [...] modern "outback" steppe or savanna-like climate, inland from the coastal zone p436 locational comparison p437 His own basic assumptions of the inevitability of war (... which unfortunately tended to bias everything toward his own basis ...) (début marqué en exp.) p443 such positive ion can generate feelings of irritability [...] Biometeorological effect p87 their livestock p85 animals in the wild [...] Response patterns (reasonable models for) p83 understandably, the major concern during famine ~p70 The most extreme matrism (the least patrist) (enfin! dj.) p70 the strong unidirectional correlations observed here were anticipated, a-priori, or predicted from a robust theory of human behavior, sex-ec.) p69 for social theory testing [...] mass characterological pathos at work, into various reactionary movements p68 in one of his last writings, R. articulated an observable connection between aridification and desert. Following a period of extending atmospheric research in the desert of Arizona, 1954-1955, he discussed how deserts "such dry" the juiciness of plant and animal life which developed a thick and prickly outer covering against the hostile environment [...] p50 The "fuel" of pleasure-anxiety (chronic sexual frustration and undischarged emotional-energy Tension - the "fuel" exp ...) p44 physical affection was absent p39. Students and professor with a research interest in R.'s findings often publish their findings under pseudonym, and medical students even hide R. book [...] this latter insult to R. [...] p34 Heterosexual Sex-repression p15 Pushed out of central Asia by other militant groups in chain reaction of events which started in China p302. "social control of sex expression" May G. p300 barber surgeons p314 Mass insanity p314 the highlands between Anatolia and India (C0 dj.) p314 scorched-earth tactics (famine) p315 In general, the belt of territory stretching from Europe into Anatolia across Iran, Pakistan, and India has, in the past, possessed the highest levels of military and social violence, and the harshest cruelties to women and children of any region on Earth p310 (C0) ; intractable church authority p316 Niebelungenlied epic , where Germanic troops drank the blood of the fallen Hunnish foe [...] the effects of ... upon the ... p333 Foreigners who refused to pay homage to his image were killed. p336

Prénoms

- Sadd : digue p233 - Margo : Mort p268 - Allat : Deesse musulman p252 (Sun) - Phaistos : ville en Crete (Hephaistos Vulcain) - Moors : phéniciens p244 ("Matamoros". SPA.) - Philo : Saint antiSex 30 p241 - Malabar : Sud Inde , ville , Matriarcale sans widow sacrifice - Pyre : Bucher funéraire p315 (pyrénées) - Cohen - khan : Haut prêtre. P348 - kamikaze : vent divin p360 - Cong fou : femme passif p350 (kung) - Vandal : wanderer vagabond p242 (cheval) - Jafr : depression Jordnalie S.E. (Aladin) - bohemia ville asie centrale p328 - Sheba , reine - Ashtoreth , deesse - Hatshepsut , reine - Ashera , fille de 9 ans, 2eme femme de Muhamed Islam - Ayesha , reine (She) - Bushman : pygmy (C3 , A2 , BE) sub. Au Bantu (Nicolas) - Jack : l'étrange noel de Mr. Jack , Jack et le haricot magique (beenstalk) , Jack-terrier (mon premier chien ``Max`` , Jaquier (chene du mariland importé en europe en ~1840) , Jacquerie (revolte des ouvrier de la soi lyonnais contre machine de Jacquard en ~1840) , LumberJack (chemise de bucheron a carreau) (Prenom dj. Edit) - Kabala : Mongol → Russe , bondage (cabale) - Dasyu : dasi , sanscrit , esclave non ayrian (Daysie ?) p28 - auto-da-fe : acte de foi (autodafe) - Osman : sultan ~1600 (Hausman Paris architecture) - Roxelana : mariée fille de Suleiman (Roxane ?) - Suleiman : caliph ottoman ~1550 ``The Magnificent`` (Soleil ?) p315 - Raja : roi indiens Vijayanagar (rage, rageux ?) p308 - Abba : uncle prophet Muhamed Abbasids (groupe musique ?) - Slaves : esclaves GR. Lat. , migration of P332 - Barbie : barbecue austra -Sati , Suttee : chaste woman SANSKRIT (café) - Asoka : ``The great`` Empereur Asie (Asuka evangelion) - Berserk : losing all sense of autopreservation - Sharia : `` the way of the water `` Signification Islam ~800 CE .

Pkjc

If the phenomenon of war is ever to be understood and finally ended. P106 these cultural factor are clear signs of armoring, sexual anxiety and genital impotence, these men ... which itself can block the individual from tender feelings towards a single partner, and drive them towards a constant seeking out of unattainable gratification with diferent sexual partners . System emphazing military regimentation , warfare and slavery (have been raised under social systems) p146 I read and made detailed outline notecards for several hundred major foundational articles, books and compendium, adressing climate, migrations, culture, warfare, religion, sexuality. Etc. ... I read and outlined various sources, the most scholarly and up-to-date I could find (not always easy) , and continued digging until the sources began to repeat themselves suggesting I had adequately reviewed available evidence for a particular region. Approximately 10000 detailed noteCards where thereby created, each with its own citation (s) When this exhausting 2 year exercice was finished - a project which temporarily transformed me into the ``Hermit of the library stacks`` at the university. Kansas [...] essential facts emerged [...] when properly organized and reviewed p106 neither do any of them take a firm and unwavering focus upon the environment of the infant, child or female, or include sexuality from the standpoint first outlined by R. . The works of Huntington Velikovsky and Bell do emphasize the rôle of major environmental change as a force to initiate change in human behavior and social structure, but are rather vague about exactly how social change proceed , or how distant regions not influenced by climate change are also subject to profound social change p215 Great Sand Sea [...] climatic optimum p217 Methode p106 Cultural center in Egypt, the Aegean , Anatolia , Mesopotamia , and The Indus valley declined , Related to the widespread desiccation, famine, migrations and invasions of the period. P280 The perfumed garden (by Nefzaou) have done a great disservice to humans emotion by making the harem appear as a place of romance, erotic passion, and enormous sexual gratification. In truth, the harem system bred murderous intrigues, sadistic cruelties, eunuchs, extreme sexual frustration, pathologie, disease, suicide and enormous misery. Again, the pattern is of competition for access to water in a drying region with fortification [...] p324 a culture which , like a volcano, continued to erupt, until its lava covered a great part of Europe and the Near E. p327 social institutions. Which were an antifemale, antichild, and antisuesad Nature. ~P346 As harsh as these conditions appear from our present perspective, they marked a slow turning point from previous years when celibacy was glorified, and woman ran the danger of being mutilated and burned alive by sex- and woman-hating Christian Clergy Simply because of their soft and sexual appearance, or for their intelligence, or wealth. P340 the abandonment of swaddling allowed young children, for the first time, to explore their own bodies, and also determine their own bowel functions more readily, Corporal punishment in the schools and severes whipping of children was criticized in Britain, and some reforms were enacted. P341 Smil has summarized the more recent phases of desertification in China, as well as attempts to combat it. (Smil V., the bad Earth, 1984) p352. Women were even regarded as wives of the gods, and blood from defloration seemed holy. With these concepts in the background ... strict injunction. P356 Again, other social conditions prevalent in China fit the overall pattern seen elsewhere in Saharasia p361 but in general the prior feudal masters were simply replaced by a new group of Communist Party task-Masters p362 (erreur : dans exp la derniere) women were given the vote, and other changes appeared which had a significant influence upon the affairs of women and young people in Japon p363 a connection to the Old World Mediterranean group is possible (Regarding patrism in Mesoamerica p381 The enterprise of Coluumbus, if it ocured today, would without question be called genocide, with accurate comparison to the atrocities of Hitler or any of the worlds most cruel and thuggish brutes. P383 and no genuine scholar will shrink from an open discussion of these incredible Spatial Correlations [...] p391 . Taken together, the prior Chapters demonstrate the earliest appearance of armored patrism within Saharasian, with a subsequent diffusion to distant lands . An unbroken chain of events has been demonstrated, from these earliest time to the first appearance of patrism, up into the Modern era. In this manner, the ancient archaeological and historical material are connected , logically and spatially with the more recent cross-cultural, anthropological data . Modern expressions of patrism are thereby shown to have ancient connections to a process which began c.4000 BCE, but no earlier. (façon de penser) p397 My rôle was to apply a set of powerful basic starting assumptions to the data, and to map them. (Methode) p398 do to move themselves [...] farther into the ''Unarmored Matrist'' side of the equation. [...] one's self, family and friends on matters of sex-economic importance is oftens time-consuming and difficult task, but in unavoidable and centrally-important. [...] AIDS Mass-hysteria is also the leading anti-sexual brain-wash of Century [...] unscientific nonsens about [...] is of inestimable value in liberating human emotion and sexuality. (Educating ...) None of these problems will be easy to change, but change they must if patrism is to be restrained and defeated. [...] must become more willing to confront hate filled authoritarian in our own cultures

2

Whither it is someone beating a child in public, a preacher-pedophile in the community, bearded Mulahs demanding their ''rights'' to poligamy and the veil, or plaguey journalists and politicians working to amplify patristic tendencies through rumor mongering and pestilent legislation active citizen groups have been historically essential in restraining patrism and restoring matrism in the West, but there now is a pressing need to caring these reforms directly into the more highly armored totalitarian cultures, within Islamic Saharasia. P482 (is explicit about what [...] make the world a more rational and peaceful place [...] but it remain an open question if sufficient numbers of their peoples can break free from the icy death-grip of Islamic ideologu . [...] clearly do not provide any short-term solution [...] actvely venting their collective cultural rage [...] p402 (edit err == exp)) a profound need for gentle and matristically-oriented physicians to add theirs voices to the criticisms of modern hospitaal medicine. P402 This patten could be and should be more fully discussed and described. Also needing clear and open discussion are the Saharasian behavior adopted within the W. democracies, notably the U.S.A., since the end of World War II. Ie, male circumcison : AIDS hysteria ; ''abstinence education'' , pathologizing of adolescent heterosexuality and ''normalizing'' pedophilia and child pornography, the ''war'' on selected illegal ''street drug'' with antithetical pushing of toxic but legal ''Medical drugs '' to schoolchildren, the dramatic growth of the prison population in the USA ; the western addiction to the new narcotic, petroleum imported from Saharasia. This latter phenomenon currently has the Western democracies trapped in a deadly St.Vitus dance with different Saharasian extreme-patrist dictatorships, who control the Spigot. And it must be point out how advocats of both liberal and conservatvive politic have preferentially supported many of these pathologies, even while rejecting others. But this discussion must wait for another time, to do the topic the justice it deserves pxxx The point of interest for this paper, and for my Saharasian discovery, are the locations and chronology of the various archaeological sites (nuances.) p437 obvious Mechanisms related to environmental pressues [...] framework of Saharasian theory p435 but Nevertheless does occur [...] falls down into the realm of ambiguous speculation at best, If the eye of an ordinary person cannot detect violence in the Rock art scenes. P440 the close geographical associations are, in fact, striking. P441 this author was as bold in its unupported claims and assertions of [...] take great care in presenting archaeological evidence. P443 I call this large global swath of aridity Saharasia, to assist in identifying its distinct environment and, as will be demonstrated, unique cultural characteristics. [...] while the term ``Saharasia`` is my own, the region itself has been discussed before by others ; Huzayyin, S. : ``Change In Climate, Vegetation, And Human Adjustment In The Saharo-Arabian Belt. ~was Mann Von , Man changing [...] asia [...] 1973 p93 the spirit and intent are everywhere the same [...] to turn the woman into an object which conforms to certain social standards of desirability. P63 (the desert as the primary agent for shaping human character structure [...] historical framework (error : dans exp)) outline several lines of reasoning and evidence, other than those given by Reich , [...] p51

Dieu Desse (suite)

- Horus p231 3300 Roi Menes, followers of [...] egypt, taller people, big skull ... 1^{er} pharaon. - Osiris, dieu des morts , esclavage, concubines etc) - Amon (fatherliness, Sungod, livre des morts) - Innin (mother goddess 3500 , epics of Gilgamesh, + deesse piestess u et chaos . - Marduk (babylon , assassine sa mère Tiamat. - Tiamat (deesse creation) - Humban (Mari de Tiamat) (père des ``faibles``) - Inshushinok (Roi des dieux ``père des pauvres) - Yahweh (Dieu, prophet ; Abraham , Indo-Aryan background ~2300 , Ur Canaan babylon Hebrew) - Enlil (Babylon , dieu des punitions et compulsif, Babylon